Marry in PARADISE

An occasion like your wedding deserves to be special. So why not tie the knot in Southeast Asia, one of the most romantic places in the world?

Set in the historic city of Siem Reap in Cambodia, the Shinta Mani Angkor has been purpose-built for romance. Located in a tranquil and leafy setting within the city's beautiful French quarter, the boutique hotel oozes luxury and offers just 39 rooms, so you can enjoy a truly intimate retreat.

Whether you choose to marry or honeymoon at Shinta Mani Angkor, you'll be treated to an unforgettable experience, with a spiritual Khmer wedding blessing ceremony that includes traditional music and a blessing from a local monk. You'll also be given a relaxing pre- and post-wedding pampering session at the on-site spa, before retiring to the resort's signature Kroya Restaurant for a gourmet wedding breakfast.

Should your dream wedding or honeymoon involve being barefoot on a pure white beach, opt for the JW Marriott Phu Quoc Emerald Bay in Vietnam. Set along gorgeous coastline by the pristine sands of Bai Khem beach, this exclusive resort is made for relaxation. Spend your days scuba diving, doing yoga or enjoying the spa, before heading to your luxury villa to indulge in exclusive private dining. You can even set off to a private island, where your own chef awaits you.

When it comes to the ceremony itself, the JW Marriott Phu Quoc Emerald Bay has something for everyone. With six venues, experienced wedding planners and a whole team of world-class caterers, they'll work with you to create a day you adore, whether you're planning a small or big affair.
